DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Group 1: drawn to an exhaust means having a vibration-free type vacuum pump and a vibrating type vacuum pump that are installed in parallel as shown in Fig. 5.

Group 2: drawn to an exhaust means having a low-vibration pump and an opening-and-closing valve as shown in Fig. 6.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. Groups 1 and 2 share common feature which were known in the art at the time of the invention as demonstrated by WIPO publication 01/022480 to Tanaka:

An exposure apparatus comprising: a plurality of components that are operated in a vacuum (see Fig. 1, vacuum provided by 54, 66, 68), a plurality of inner chambers that respectively accommodate these individual components (chambers for reticle R, projection system PL and wafer W), bellows (34 and 34) that connect the respective inner chambers, an outer chamber (combination of the inner chambers shown in Fig. 1) that accommodates the plurality of inner chambers as a whole, and exhaust means installed in the respective inner chambers and the out chambers (exhaust by 48 and 56).

3. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Group 1: Claims 3, 5, 6, 9 and 13

Group 2: Claims 4, 6, 10 and 14

The following claim(s) are generic: Claims 1, 2, 8 11 and 12.

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group 1 claims an exhaust means having a vibration-free type vacuum pump and a vibrating type vacuum pump that are installed in parallel not found in any other Group.

Group 2 claims an exhaust means having a low-vibration pump and an opening-and-closing valve not found in any other Group.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
